LAKE TRAVERSE RESERVATION

Part 1
General Matters

75-01-01 Title

This Code shall be known as the Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate Sex Offender Notification and Registration Code for the Lake Traverse Reservation.

75-01-02 Legal Authority

This code is enacted pursuant to the inherent sovereign tribal powers of the Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate and expressly delegated to the Tribal Council in Article VII of the Tribe's Constitution, which authorizes the Tribal Council to make rules, manage, promulgate and enforce Codes providing for the health, safety, economic well-being and general welfare of the Tribe and its members and residents; to maintain law and order on the Reservation; to administer justice on the Reservation; to regulate Tribal committees, boards, agencies and employees; and to delegate to Tribal committees, boards, agencies, and employees, the foregoing powers, subject to review by the Tribal Council.

The jurisdiction of the Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate shall extend to lands lying in the territory within the original confines of the Lake Traverse Reservation as described in Article III of the Treaty of February 19, 1867 15 Stat. 505, and those lands subsequently acquired by the Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate. The Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate reserves the right to exceed requirements set in certain federal laws for the greatest protection of tribal members.

75-01-03 Purpose

The Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate Tribal Council recognizes the need to protect tribal members, and all those who live, work, visit, or attend school within the jurisdiction of the Lake Traverse Reservation or any land owned or operated by the Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate ("SWO"), wherever located.

75-01-04 Need

Violent crime in Indian Country is more than twice that of the national average. On some reservations it is twenty times the national average. An astounding thirty percent of Indian and Alaska Native women will be raped in their lifetimes. Eighty-six percent of the perpetrators of these crimes are non-Indian. Tribal nations are disproportionately affected by violent crime and sex offenses committed by both Indian and non-Indian perpetrators. Consequently, the conduct and presence of convicted sex offenders in Indian Country threatens the political integrity, economic security, health and welfare of tribal nations even to the point of imperiling the subsistence of tribal communities.
